The Chamber Music Society of Central Virginia opens its 10th Anniversary Season.

Richmond, Virginia - The Chamber Music Society of Central Virginia celebrates its tenth anniversary in the 2014 / 2015 concert season. On this special occasion, we are proud to present a series of 11 concerts spanning throughout the year.

We begin this season with two concerts inspired by one of classical music's major capitals, the city of Vienna. Let us take you on a journey from the musical classics of old Vienna to contemporary chamber music inspired by Mozart and Schubert- all through exciting performances that bridge the gaps between old and new. Joining the Society will be six world-class guest musicians from the US and abroad.

Individual concert info is listed below.

What: "NeoVienna"

When: Saturday October 25, 2 p.m.

Where: Richmond Main Public Library, 101 E. Franklin Street, Richmond, VA.

Cost: free

Description:

Listen to the classical sounds of old Vienna, but with a contemporary spin! The Chamber Music Society performs approachable, exciting chamber music inspired by Mozart, Schubert and Strauss - written by composers of today. Presented in conjunction with the Richmond Public Library's Gellman Room Concert Series.

What: “Austro-Hungarian Waltz”

When: Monday October 27, 7:30pm

Where: Bon Air Presbyterian Church, 9201 W. Huguenot Rd., Richmond, VA

Cost: $25 Regular, $20 Senior (60+), Student $5

Description:

The Chamber Music Society opens its 10th season with musical classics from the 18th and 19th century Vienna, a European capitol that dominated the world of classical music for hundreds of years.
